

RECOMMENDATION TERMINATING
SUPERVISED RELEASE PRIOR TO ORIGINAL EXPIRATION DATE

FILED

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE P 4: 25
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

vs.

Nazai Ayish

Docket Number: 1:99CR05052-001 OWW

BY: _____ DEPUTY

LEGAL HISTORY:

On February 7, 2000, the above named was placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years, which commenced on October 31, 2003. Special conditions included requirements that he submit to search and seizure, provide the probation office with access to any financial information, could not possess any paging device or cellular phone, and a requirement that he register as a narcotics offender.

SUMMARY OF COMPLIANCE:

The defendant has complied with all the conditions and special conditions of supervised release and has not been involved in any further criminal activities. Furthermore, it should be noted the defendant has received disability benefits since his release on supervision and is married with three children. It is the opinion of the Probation Officer that he has derived the maximum benefit from supervision and is not in need of continued supervision.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that the defendant in this case be terminated early.
